

BA SANGAM COLLEGE

YEAR 10

ENGLISH

WORKSHEET 1

Dear Students,

The following Language activities are to be attempted in your Language Book. We might have attempted some questions in class. You are to revisit these questions as part of your revision.

Language

A. REWRITING

Rewrite the following sentences using the instructions given in brackets in your Book. Do not change the meaning.

1. The anonymous stranger turned around the corner and disappeared into the darkness. (Remove the redundancy and rewrite the sentence).

2. “The rise in employment has resulted in a decrease in the crime rate,” the Prime Minister announced. (Begin: “The crime rate....”)

3. In a Tongan funeral, mourners wear taovala as a sign of respect. (Begin: Taovala.....)

4. The Maths question was very difficult. Ireen could not answer it. (Join using : too...to)

5. Pete decided not to swim across the river because it was flooded. (Use: Since.....)

6. Nanise is not only intelligent, she is well-mannered as well. (Begin: Besides)

7. Read the following and make a request.

A tree branch has fallen in the middle of the path to your house. Request your friend to help you clear the branch from the path.

(Begin : How about...)

B.PROOF READING

Each sentence has one grammar error. You are required to write the error and its correction in your Book.

Part I

Sentence	Error	Correction
1. Clyde has to forebear his fondness for alcohol while taking anti-biotics.
2. The criminal was hung in prison.
3 He found the teachers utterances too cryptique.
4 The orchestra is tuning their instruments.
5. Capitol punishment has been banished in most countries.

Part II

Sentence	Error	Correction
1.The class went to the cemetary for the burial.
2 Malta was giving her friend the cool shoulder.
3. Paul is a optimist. He tends to view things negatively
4. The aura of opolence had gone.
5. Her essay was clearly un-redundant.

Part III

Sentence	Error	Correction
1. The children who the Police scolded, were arguing over nothing.
2. No sooner had the bus stopped when Jone got off.
3. The lawyer sighted his client's clean record when pleading him innocent in front of the jury.
4. After the formal part of the programme, the students partook in the meal.
5. The ordered goods have not arrived.		