

BA SANGAM COLLEGE

YEAR 9

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE

WORKSHEET 3

Fill in the blank

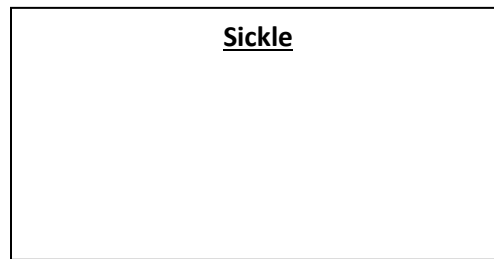

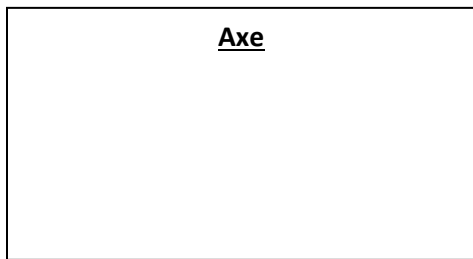

Fill in the blank using appropriate word(s) from the list given below. Do not use any word(s) more than once.

Word list

Commercial farming	Subsistence farming	Visibility	Hot iron
Semi-commercial farming	Screw	Apiculture	Tool room
Farm management	Chemicals	Aquaculture	Barter

1. Dairy production in Fiji is an example of _____.
2. A _____ is used for holding materials together.
3. The equipment used to burn horn buds before they begin to grow is a _____.
4. The type of farming where there is minimum pollution and wastes are recycled is _____.
5. _____ is the production of honey and wax in agriculture.
6. _____ is essential because it allows the farmer to plan, monitor and assess the performance of the farm with the aim of making profit.
7. Farm tools should have bright handles for clear _____ in the garden.
8. Tools and _____ must be kept out of reach of children on the farm.
9. Farm tools are securely stored in a _____.

1. a) In the space provided below draw diagrams of the following farm tools.

b) Explain and give an example of semi-commercial agriculture farming system?

c) Name one pre-commercial tool used in agriculture?

d) Why is it important to clean tools after use?

e) State the importance of numbering tools in a tool room?

f) State one importance of budgeting?

g) Describe any one problem facing the development of agriculture with its suggested solution.

2) Given below is the diagram for the effects of mishandling chemicals and tools. Label the parts A, B and C in the diagram given below.

