

2036 Penang Sangam Primary School
Elementary Science
Year 6
Worksheet 5 - Solution

Questions and Answers

True or False

Write true or false beside each statement.

1. Human activities such as burning and bulldozing do not harm the environment. False
2. Organisms can only survive in environments that meet their needs. True
3. Features that make organisms well adapted to tackle the challenges of the environment they live in are called adaptive features. True
4. Changes in an organism's environment may result in an increase in their population. False
5. We should take care of plants and animals in our environment. True

Short Answers

1. List down some human activities that bring about harmful effects to the plants and animals.

Building roads and houses, bulldozing, burning and also the use of chemical-based sprays.

2. Changes in an organism's environment may result in death, migration, or survival of a few well-adapted individuals in the population.

3. Different environments have their own unique environmental conditions. List them down.

Temperature, rainfall, soil quality, salinity, pH, and predators.