DICTIONARY, LIBRARY AND MASS MEDIA.

- LIBRARY NOTES (Write the notes in your Target book)

WHAT IS A LIBRARY?

- A library is a place where many books about many different subjects are found and where people go to study, read or do research about a topic.

WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENT SECTIONS FOUND IN A LIBRARY?

- Fiction section
- Non- Fiction section
- Newspaper section
- Magazines section
- Computer section
- Biography section
- Sports section

FICTION BOOKS

- Fiction books refers to stories that are not factual or true or based on true events. They are created by the imagination of the author.
- Examples are Goosebumps stories, Disney stories, comics etc.

NON- FICTION BOOKS

- Non- Fiction books refers to literature based on facts or true events/stories.
- Examples are National Geography magazines, Biographies (books about famous people), Reference books, encyclopedias, etc.

WHO IS A LIBRARIAN?

- A person who works in the library, issues and receives books, enforces library rules and manages the library with their assistants.

WHAT IS AN ISSUING DESK?

- Is a table/desk where the librarian or the assistant sits, issues and receives books.

WHO CAN USE THE LIBRARY?

- The general public can use the library but cannot rent out a book. In order to rent out a book, one has to become a member of the library and pay the membership fee.

WHAT BOOKS ARE RENTED OUT AND WHICH BOOKS ARE NOT?

- Fiction books are mostly rented out. Non- Fiction books are not rented out as these books are very expensive. Therefore you can only use the books in the library.

SOME RULES OF A LIBRARY ARE:

- Always maintain silence.
- Eating and drinking is not allowed in the library.
- Do not play in the library.
- Return books on time.
- Do not damage books or take pages out from a book.

WHEN DO YOU PAY A FINE?

- When you break library rules, when you damage books, when you do not return the book on the given time.
