

PENANG SANGAM HIGH SCHOOL
YEAR 10- ENGLISH
2021

LANGUAGE

1. Fiji's Roving Ambassador to the Pacific, Lita Mawa, believes that every investment made is an investment in the people.
Identify an example of an indefinite article in the above sentence.
A. in                                      B. an                                      C. the                                      D. that
2. The elderly citizens of Natabua Old Peoples' Home enjoyed being among the visitors from China who brought them presents on Christmas day.
Which preposition in the above sentence means "in a group"?
A. from                                      B. beside                                      C. within                                      D. among
3. The man with roses _____ like your brother.
A. look                                      B. looks                                      C. is looks                                      D. is looking
4. The _____ by the reporter was harsh and cruel towards the Rakiraki Soccer Team.
A. critic                                      B. critique                                      C. criterion                                      D. criteria
5. Which of the following prefixes would form the word that is opposite in meaning to the word religious?
A. un                                      B. dis                                      C. in                                      D. ir

REWRITING

1. It was an extremely hot day so Manasa just lay down.
[Use: such a]
2. It was too late for Kelly to change her mind as Pauline had taken her phone.
[Begin: Before ...]
3. Rusila likes going to the pictures more than going to dances.
[Use: prefers]
4. "It gives me great pleasure to be here this afternoon," said Mr. Lee.
[Rewrite in reported speech]
5. It was such a heavy book that Dolly's arms ached after she carried it.
[Use: so...that]

PROOF READING

Sentence	Error	Correction
1) Never I have see such an expensive car.
2) It is no use worry about it.
3) Damodar City has famous resturants.
4) The new devise will make work easier.
5) It was careless to her to repeat that mistake.

SHORT STORIES

The class captain stood up, picked up all the bottles and snacks and put them in his bag. “I’ll take these back home. Do you all agree?”

- (a) Write the title and author of the story from which the above extract is taken.
- (b) Describe the setting where this extract takes place.
- (c) Who are “these” referring to?
- (d) What important lesson can be learnt from this short story?

List of Short Stories

- 1. Kindness Has Its Own Reward
- 2. A Pair of Black Shoes
- 3. Mayerly Sanchez: Blessed are the Peacemakers
- 4. A Peculiar Picnic

Choose a short story from the list given above and:

- 1. Name the author of the short story chosen.
  - 2. Describe the setting of the story.
  - 3. Name a character you admire and give a reason why you admire the character.
- Choose another short story studied and:

- 4. Name the author of the short story chosen.
- 5. Explain one important lesson you have learnt from the short story.
- 6. Identify an incident that brings out the lesson in (4) above.

NOVEL

- 1. Write the title and author of the novel studied this year.
- 2. Name a character that has taught you a valuable lesson in the story.
- 3. What lesson has the above character taught you?
- 4. How are the main characters in the story similar to you?
- 5. Describe the setting and background of the novel.
- 6. How does the setting of the story affect the main character?
- 7. Describe the ending of the novel.