Question One : Register Study- Language of Public Speaking

The Honourable Minister for Commerce, Trade, Tourism, and Transport;
Distinguished Guests;
My Fellow Fijians.

Bula Vinaka and a very good afternoon to you all.

I am absolutely thrilled to be with all of you today to celebrate our country's 50th Anniversary. And I am especially delighted to see so many people who have brought their businesses here. You show us the spirit of the Fijian people, the energy and drive and courage it takes to start a business and make it grow. Your success is Fiji's success, and so Fiji Day is very much your day—because Fiji celebrates you as much as you celebrate Fiji.

This is truly a celebration—not just of our 50th anniversary, but of Fiji's bounty and the Fijian spirit. You are all here in the midst of this pandemic, which forced us all to make great sacrifices, to show and sell what you have produced and to help create a genuine spirit of community. It is something we have sorely missed, and it is something we need. It's a perfect addition to the IDC tournament that is happening right next door, and I thank you for making it possible. The lovos, the curries, the games, the entertainment, the candy floss—it is all wonderful to see. So as long as we take care to maintain proper distance, it gives us hope for a time when we can return to normal. Until then, we can enjoy this day in this place, with you.

I know that the measures we were forced to take to protect ourselves from this pandemic have been especially hard for you. I understand the reality on the ground. I understand your sacrifice. But you are Fijians, and I also trust in your ability to be tough in the face of a challenge. But you can't do it alone.
