CONTENT LEARNING OUTCOME:	Concepts, Skills and Attitudes:	Understanding the Past
	Suggested MiLO:	Investigate “colonisation” in the Pacific, and discuss its effects on the different countries in the Pacific.

ANSWERS

1. Define “history” in your own words.

History is a record prepared by the historians of everything in the past and it is like a bridge, connecting the past with the present and pointing to the future

2. Some positive effects of colonisation on the Pacific Island countries were economic developments, infrastructure development, technology, education, modernisation and so forth.

Some negative effects of colonisation on the Pacific Island countries were loss of traditional culture and beliefs; Western ideology and British colonial interests were imposed on the natives; Asian immigrants were brought to facilitate the operation of the British colony.
