Lesson Notes

In spite of, Despite, Although and Even though

In spite of, despite, although and even though are all used to show contrast and are used for the same meaning. These words do not go with the word 'but'

*The only difference is the way they are used - the structure in which they are used

In spite of/Despite

In spite of and despite are placed in front of a noun or pronoun.

For example:

1. We enjoyed our camping holiday in spite of the rain.
2. Despite the pain in his leg, he completed the marathon.
3. Despite studying very hard, he still didn't pass the exam

Note:

Despite does NOT have 'of' after it.

For example: Despite the bad

Although/Even though

Although is used in front of a subject and a verb.

For example:

1. We enjoyed our camping holiday although it rained every day.
2. Although he studied very hard, he didn't pass the exam.

* 'Even though' is a slightly stronger form of 'although'.

For example: We decided to buy a car even though we didn't have enough money.
