

PENANG SANGAM HIGH SCHOOL
P.O.BOX 44, RAKIRAKI
SUPPLEMENTARY ACTIVITIES

WEEK 7

Year/Level: 13 Subject: ENGLISH

Strand 3	Writing and Shaping
Sub Strand	EN. 13.3.1.1 Construct various text types to communicate ideas for a targeted audience and for a variety of purposes.
Content Learning Outcome	- Write texts to express ideas and feelings using a wide range of mechanics and stylistic features.

Short Story Essay Question

“Characters teach the readers meaningful lessons in a prose work.”

With reference to two short stories on the theme, Love, discuss the statement above.

Follow the plan closely:

Plan

Powerful character – Harry- adored the sister from the beginning, only care giver Christine had. Quotations to support <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.) “He was fourteen when it happened.”</li> <li>2.) “The brother, however, adored the little girl from the start. He got into trouble for cutting school so he could look after her.”</li> </ol> Lessons taught by Harry to Readers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Siblings must take care of each other.</li> <li>2.) Have a close bonding with each other.</li> <li>3) At time assume the role of parents</li> </ol>	Powerful character- Diane- had charismatic influence, carried a sense of superiority Quotations to support – <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) “Something happened to a boy when he looked into those eyes.”</li> <li>2) “And for her! That nothing!”</li> </ol> Lessons taught by Diane to Readers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) humbleness is important</li> <li>2).we must treat everyone as equal because no one is superior or inferior.</li> <li>3) people must not exploit or play around with anyone’s feelings and emotions and that sentiments and feelings of love, care and affection must not be taken for granted.</li> </ol>
---	--

Genre: _____

Titles of Works Studied _____

Authors _____

