The sun shone brightly. It was a hot day. No one wanted to do anything because it was very hot.

Suddenly Grandfather said, "Let's go to the beach!"

Nita jumped up. Elizabeth jumped up and Mosese jumped up too.

Grandmother quickly prepared some sandwiches and cold lemon juice. She also packed some bananas and mangoes into a big cooler.

Everyone helped. Nita packed towels into a bag. Elizabeth packed everyone's dry clothes into another bag. Mosese cleaned up the living room. Grandfather went to check on the car.

Soon everyone was ready. They all piled into Grandfather's brown car. It was hot inside. As they left, they wound down the glass in the car so the cool passing of air could blow in. They were on their way!

Suddenly Grandmother shouted, "Oh no! We have to go back! I left the box of food at home!"

"What?" Everyone looked unhappy, but they had to go back for the food.

Finally, they reached the beach. The white sand was hot, but they dived into the sea, it was cool.

They no longer felt hot.

Nita, Elizabeth and Mosese were glad that Grandfather had thought of bringing them to the beach. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves.
