TREASURE ISLAND

Act one - Scene One - SUMMARY

- Captain Billy Bones was staying in Mrs. Hawkin's Inn (a small hotel). Although Dr Livesey warned him not to drink too much, he kept on drinking rum.
- This was probably because he was scared of the other pirates who knew that he had "Flint's fist" (meaning treasure which the pirate, Captain Flint, had buried on an island).
- Suddenly Black dog, one of the pirates, arrived and asked Captain Bones for the treasure. Captain Bones was able to chase him away, but this made him feel weak.
- Captain bones asked Jim Hawkins, the inn owner's son, to tell Dr Livesey to come to the Admiral Benbow and capture "all Flint's crew" (the other pirates who were after their share of the treasure).
- Blind Pew a blind pirate, arrived. He put a black spot-on Billy Bones' left hand – he died soon after. Just before he died, he gave the key to his sea chest to Jim, warning him about the sea – faring man (a sailor) with one leg (P. 7).
- Jim and Mrs. Hawkins found a map of Treasure Island in Captain Bones Sea chest. They knew that the pirates were coming and they managed to escape.
- Blind Pew, Tom Morgan, and Black Dog arrived, but were too late. They then realized that Dr Livesey and Squire Trelawney were coming so two of them ran away. Blind Pew stayed – he was about to attack Jim, but Dr Livesey saved him.
- Jim showed the map to Dr Livesey and Squire Trelawney. The Squire knew about Flint and after looking at the map, he realized that it showed where Flint had buried the treasure.
- They decided to buy a ship and go to look for the treasure, but Dr Livesey said they would have to be very careful. The pirates who were alive were a danger to them.
