

PENANG SANGAM HIGH SCHOOL
YEAR 12 ENGLISH
WORKSHEET 13

Strand	WRITING AND SHAPING
Sub strand	3.2 LANGUAGE FEATURES AND RULES EN12.3.2.1
Content learning outcome	Select and use appropriate vocabulary, figurative and idiomatic expressions, linking devices and sentence structures to effectively convey meaningful information.

Proof reading activity

Identify the error and write the correction.

QUESTION	ERROR	CORRECTION
1. Atu's proficiency in Hindi language was commended
2. The principle has a lot of administrative duties to fulfill.
3. The postman had difficulty in reading the address on the envelope because the handwriting was quite eligible.
4. After the flood the farmer realised that he should have build his house on a hilltop.
5. A good shopper chooses nutrition food and is always mindful of the health of her family.
6. Some students cannot cope with peer pressures so they go to the billiard room.
7. Parvati was delightful with her prize for coming first in the Mathematics competition.
8. There are so much disadvantages of smoking.
9. Smoking increase the tendency of the blood to clot.
10. City life is better then village life
11. Young people should be encouraged to live in villagers.
12. Heavy and continuous rain over a two day period results in serious flooding in the Rewa river delta.
13. "Our county's flag look beautiful against the clear blue sky doesn't it?" exclaimed Luke.

14.Our science quiz team leader answered the first question correctly and this boost the team's morale.
15.Sefa plans to rise goats when he leaves school.
16.Sareen loves marital arts; she is an expert at Tai Kwan Do especially.
17.Even non-smoker's health is affected when they exhale smoke.
18.On the back was written grandmother's contempt for the girl which was the first child of her son.
19.Compulsory testing for HIV/AIDS should not be introduce in Fiji
20.Abandoned infants is a rising problems in Australia.
21.Advertisements is the most common examples of persuasive language.
22.Erika had to device an instrument to measure light waves.
23.The sight of the snow falling touched the poet's sole.
24.Overseas trade must be encouraged if we are to have an healthy economy.
25.Deafness is a more profound handicap then blindness.		