ACT 1 SCENE 3

PLOT

On Sunday afternoon, Atama comes to meet Iva. Atama had told his parents about Iva and they were very angry. Iva is frightened to tell her parents because she feels that she will disappoint them. Atama plans to take Iva to Suva and save enough money to get married. So, Iva is to pack her bags and wait for Atama at night. When Atama leaves, Epeli comes. He is angry with Iva for betraying him.

Activity

1. Listen and read “between the lines”- Epeli’s last warning to Iva. Give your opinion on what the warning is to Iva.

2. What are the reasons for Iva’s parents choosing to marry Iva to Apenisa who is ten years older?

3. List some of the ways Atama tries to convince Iva to join him to Suva.

ACT 1 SCENE 4

PLOT

Epeli comes back to Iva at night and threatens Iva with a knife and later tells Iva that he would take revenge the 'Fijian Way'. He then hides in the bush close to Iva's house. Atama comes and starts to leave with Iva when Epeli attacks him. Atama is able to overpower Epeli and leave with Iva.

Activity

1. Quote two abusive words used by Epeli.

2. What does this reveal about Epeli's character?

Act 2

Scene 1: Iva's depression

Plot

After 6 months of staying in Suva, Iva becomes heavily pregnant. Atama has found a job but it is not sufficient to meet all requirements especially of the upcoming child. Iva tells Atama that she does not feel like eating and is always tired. She is depressed after knowing that her father has lost his job and needed money. Iva further admits that she feels imprisoned in the flat as she is lonely and does not know any neighbours.

Activity

1. After reading the dialogues recall and tell whatever has been mentioned about Iva's father.

- Discuss why Iva's father could have been sacked.

3. What other reasons are provided by Iva for her depression?
