Act 2 – Scene 2

- This scene begins when Queenie is sitting outside the house ready to leave for Tamatea.
- Just then Mr. Atkinson comes in looking for Johnny.
- Queenie tells Mr. Atkinson that Johnny went somewhere the previous evening and never returned and mother went in search of him.
- While they were talking, sergeant Robinson comes in and reveals that Johnny has wrecked the church at night.
- Queenie is worried about Johnny and is asking sergeant Robinson what will be done to Johnny.
- Just then Aroha comes in and asks about Johnny.
- It was time for Queenie to leave so the mum and daughter goes inside the house, talk little bit and bid goodbye to each other.
- Johnny comes in and they discuss about his bail (50 pounds was the bail amount).
- Mr. Atkinson still wants Johnny and Aroha to work for him.
- When everybody is gone, Johnny reveals to his mother that he did that act out of anger. As an elder brother he was not able to cope up with what has happened with his sister.
