

LESSON NOTES 21

Year/Level: 13      Subjects: Computer Studies

Strand:	CE 3 Application Packages
Sub-strand:	CE 13.3.1 Web Designing
Content Learning Outcome:	Short answer question

- 1) Is a markup language used to create a website document
  - A. HTML
  - B. Java
  - C. C++
  - D. CSS

- 2) SMART stands for
  - A. Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic and timely
  - B. Special, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic and timely
  - C. Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Release and timely
  - D. Specific, Measurable, Active, Realistic and timely

- 3) Refers to the service that allows a site to be stored on and accessed from the internet
  - A. Website hosting
  - B. Website review
  - C. Website testing
  - D. Website design

- 4) Is an outline drawing of a possible arrangement of web content
  - A. Navigation design
  - B. Interaction design
  - C. Interface design
  - D. Wireframe

Short answer questions

- 1) Difference between HTML and CSS?

---

---

---

- 2) Define:

- i. Wireframe

---

---

ii. Network interface card

---

---

iii. Interconnecting

---

---

3) List two content formats used on the web.

---

---

---

4) Explain why testing stage is important to the web design process

---

---

5) Describe the purpose of browser compatibility in website

---

---

6) Differentiate between widget and mash up?

---

---

---

7) Explain the purpose of website review in web development?

---

---

---

8) State long form of SLA?

---