VIII: Comprehension

One night a clever farmer was returning home from a cattle fair. He bought a buffalo from there. As he passed through a dense forest, a thief came in front of him. He had a thick stick in his hand. He said, "Hand over all that you have."

The farmer got scared and gave his money to the thief. As he turned to go, the thief said, "Give me the buffalo too. Why are you taking it away?"

The farmer handed over the buffalo's rope to the thief. Then the farmer said, "You have taken everything of mine. Can you give me your stick?"

"Why do you need it?" the dacoit enquire "My wife will be pleased that at least I got a stick from the fair."

The thief gave the stick to the farmer happily. Immediately the clever farmer started beating the thief with the stick. The thief ran off to save his life leaving the buffalo and the farmer's money behind. So the clever farmer saved himself and his belongings too.

Answer the following questions in a complete sentence.

1. Who was returning home from cattle fair?

2. What did he buy from there?

3. What did the thief get from the farmer?

4. What did the farmer asked from the thief?
